NEWS & VIEWS

STILL GOING STRONG

Speaking to Neil McKenna (that grand old man of racing) recently, he told of his first race back in 1886 when he had six mounts which resulted in three winners, two seconds and a third. The course — Byrock; out Bourke way. Today, at 94 years of age, Neil, who is spritely as ever, looks back over all those years associated with racing, both as a jockey and trainer, with pride and pleasure.

ON THE MEND

Word from Mrs. John Norris that after a serious operation in America, John is making good progress and expects to be leaving for home shortly. We at the Club are looking forward to seeing you again, John.

THREE BUILDING MUSKETEERS

Nice to see those building brothers, Bon, Charles and Geoff Eastment, in the Club last week. All have interests apart from the bricks and mortar. Committeeman Geoff, golfing (he's packed his skis away after that nasty leg break last year); Charles, bowls, golf and his greatest love, fishing; whilst Bon has his S.T.C. Committee interest and horse racing, along with orchid growing and lazing at his beautiful pool on the north shore.

CLUB MEMBERS BOB PARKER AND SON, OPEN AT 26 CROSS STREET DOUBLE BAY

Quite a few of the club members, especially the younger generation, were sighted at the Parkers' swinging restaurant, recently opened by Bob and his son.

If you want a glass of wine and a tasty meal visit Cross Street — you'll be well looked after by the Parkers, and it won't cost you a fortune.

One of our dining and wining members said he liked the decor, including the young blondes, brunettes. Lovely lasses in a go-go mood make it one of our gayest spots down Double Bay way.

ADVERTISING EXECUTIVE JOHN ROY ROVES TO INTERESTING PLACES

Club member John Roy certainly has had his share of travel and colorful experiences.

His advertising agency handles the promotion for a hotel group in Fiji who recently completed Fiji's most glamorous Hawaiian-type hotel, named "The Fijian". This is a quite unique and exotic hotel on its own island, which is attached to the mainland by a causeway. It is the epitome of a tropic island paradise. His assignment was shared with his wife, Pat, and as guests of the owners, had a working holiday there, playing some part in the opening activities and having fun in the sun including game-fishing.

The agency also handles the promotional activities of the famous air line — Air India, also the advertising for the Government of India Tourist Department. A most interesting conference was called in Srinagar in Kashmir recently. At this conference were international travel writers and world known advertising agents for the Tourist Department. John Roy attended this conference as the Australian representative.

Kashmir is one of the most beautiful spots on earth and he had the pleasure of playing golf on the world's highest golf course at Gulmarg in Kashmir. To quote John, "This was an exciting experience as one plays in a valley completely surrounded by the snow-capped hills of the Himalayas. I had the questionable experience of starting a game at an altitude of nearly 10,000 feet in brilliant sunlight, setting off in slacks and a shirt, only to be trapped on the fourth tee in a slathering snow-storm."

Certainly a unique experience — what a wonderful excuse for a bad round, eh?

RING OF FRIENDSHIP

There's always a merry ring on the fourth floor when Gordon Booth, Len Plasto and Bill Reardon, Bill Laforest, Mel Lawton, Geoff Harris and Jock Lindsay join forces.

Topics are many and varied and an age add-up would rival a Bradman cricket score. Knowledge rating of this sixsome leaves little to be desired. It's grand to see a group gather and enjoy the friendship of our great Club. May they live long to share the joy of comradeship.

RECORD CATCH

Member John Durkin was elated recently when he helped land a Black Marlin weighing 214½ lbs. off Cairns during September. The gear on which it was caught was only 80 lb. breaking strain, and the boat was the 38 footer "Athena". This Marlin was the first captured from this boat, and also took the record for the biggest first marlin caught from a Cairns game fishing boat.

Quite a feat, and we extend our congratulations to you John, and to the others in the crew.

CONGRATULATIONS DOLLY

Miss Dolly Venus, well known to Club members who frequent the First Floor, has been in the employ of the Club for twenty years, as at 3rd November last.

Long may she be spared to tend to the wants of the members.

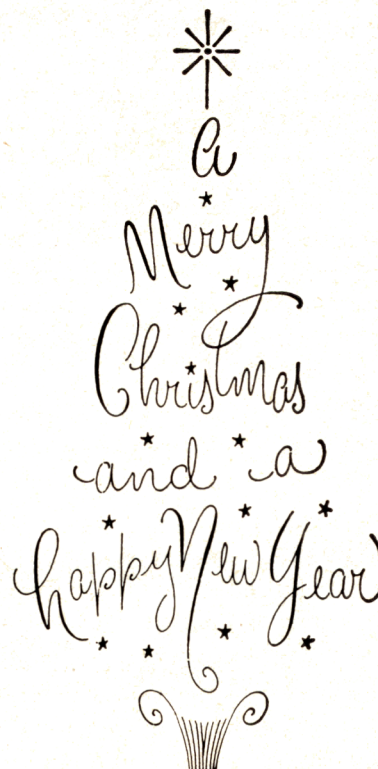

HOWZAT?

Club member John Madgwick, Jnr. starred in the recent cricket match of New South Wales Colts versus Queensland Colts.

John captained our State team which defeated Queensland, and in addition he made 141 not out.

Congratulations, John, on this fine performance.

*The Chairman and Committee
wish you one and all*

WESTERN HOSPITALITY

Committeemen Les Tidmarsh, Bill Waterhouse and Jock Rorrison recently visited Western Australia, where Bill fielded on the Queen's Cup and Invitation Stakes. On arrival they were met by the W.R.C. Committee and entertained at the aerodrome. This was followed by a launch picnic in the afternoon, a press cocktail party and a private party at night. At the races on the Monday they were looked after by the Committee and at night by the local bookmakers. Les, how did you all come back looking so fit?

CONGRATULATIONS

John Fox, one of the Club's most regular members, has become a grandfather for the second time.

HOME FOR CHRISTMAS

Roly Murray, Club member and general manager of Distillers Agency, plans to leave on December 14th to see his parents for Christmas. Roly will also be visiting the East, America, England and Scotland and expects to arrive back in January.

ON THE MEND

Members will be glad to hear that A. G. Connolly, one of our most popular bookmaking members, is recovering from a minor operation in St. Vincent's Private Hospital.

We at the Club are looking forward to seeing you on the first shortly, Con.

BACK TO THE CLUB

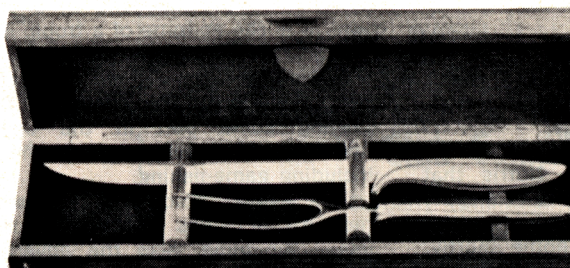

Lal Bowden, another popular bookmaker, returned to the Club recently after a three months' cruise around the world.

Lal enjoyed the trip so much that he is booking for another in the New Year. Good luck, Lal.

EXPORT AWARD

At a function held at the Hotel Canberra on 22nd November, 1967, presided over by Sir Alan Westerman, Secretary of the Department of Trade, Metal Perforators Limited were, amongst others, presented with an Export Award for 1967/68.

Members will be interested to note that four of the Directors of Metal Perforators Limited, namely Jim Stapleton, Tom Farrar, Bob Keating and Ken Gillespie, are Club members.

GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP DAY BIG SUCCESS

Tattersall's Club Golf Club Championship day at Concord attracted a field of 93 members.

Scores were good despite the century heat conditions. Winners are listed, and some of the special awards caused merriment at presentation time.

The "Temper Trophy" was won by George Ryder; "Most putts at the one hole" — Ted Peoples with 5 (on a countback from Alan Stewart); "Best double figures at the one hole" — Jim Stack with a 13 at the 5th; "Reddest Face" — Alan Black; "The Socket Trophy" — Tom Crow; "Newest Member" — Tom Hartigan; "Shortest Putt Miser" — Charles Coppa; "Bewitched, 'B' and Bewildered Trophy" — Charles Eastment; "Most distinguished looking golfer" — Jim Grant; "100 in A grade" — Ron Street; Alan Hannan for a well compiled 10 on the 15th; Kevin Kingsley for looking so manly; George Martin for the "Greatest Tree climber of them all"; "Club Throwing" — Carl Malouf; and a trophy for Kevin Roach who could have won the Bradman score if he wasn't so shy — he didn't put in his card.

Club thanks are recorded to trophy donors; President, Frank Carberry, Barney Fay, Les Tidmarsh, Alan Black, Arthur McCamley, Vic Vadas, Clare Higson, and Geoff Eastment were on the list.

Incidentally, Geoff, President of the Golf Club, had a long session in the presentation of prizes and handled proceedings with his usual friendly charm.

Trophies including various past golf cups and shields were displayed. Many have been in the Club since its inception and will be treasured by members winning the right to have their names recorded on these historic relics of the original golf club when Tattersall's Club was much younger. Committee members, John O'Neil, John McKell and Arthur McCamley attended Concord, and were noticed enjoying a friendly drink with Ken Williams who represented the Bowling Section.

The success of the golfing section's triumphant day was a tribute to the work of the Golf Club's President and Committee, Clare Higson's son, John, Lyal Binns and Mrs. Banner (office staff). Dates have been set for most days in the 1968 season, and members will be notified early in the coming year.

MELBOURNE CUP OWNER'S RUN MATCHED THAT OF HIS HORSE

Many members will recall the frequent and welcome visits of Mr. H. A. (Bert) Wolfe to our Club over a long period of years when he wrote for Melbourne's leading papers as Turf Editor and enjoyed the Club's honorary Press Membership privileges.

Members eagerly sought his company because he had a deep racing and thoroughbred raising background and knowledge and was, above all, the raconteur perfect.

One of his best stories related to the 1908 Melbourne Cup winner, Lord Nolan.

Bert is grandson on his maternal side of a famous racing man, John Mayo, who was nicknamed "Wizard of the West" because of his many triumphs with horses he brought from his Maitland stables. These included two Melbourne Cups with Lord Cardigan in 1903 and Lord Nolan, 1908.

Bert spent much of his early life on the Mayo property where he learned the secrets of breeding and racing from the richest possible source.

Bert tells how he was taken to Melbourne for the 1908 Cup trip by his grandfather and spent most of his time among the notable champions of that period.

On Cup day they set off early for Flemington on foot leading their precious Lord Nolan and just as they neared the gates of the course, Bert drew his grandfather's attention to a funeral cortege approaching from the opposite direction.

Mr. H. A. (Bert) Wolfe, an eminent Melbourne newspaper writer on racing, and for a period Chairman of Stewards for the Queensland Turf Club. Mr. Wolfe has retired and now resides in Sydney.

Now it was a well known superstition of the time that no luck could possibly come your way if a funeral crossed your path. Here was a dilemma indeed for John Mayo with his horse, backed for all he could muster at the time, at 100/1.

John thought and acted quickly. Frock coats and topers were the vogue of the day, and crushing his hat down firmly over his brow he tucked his coat-tails round his waist and, shouting to Bert to run, he bolted at full speed for the racecourse gates to get through them before the funeral could cross their path.

Bert said they made it, but only by observing a speed which comparably matched that to be pulled out by Lord Nolan later in the day when he landed the Cup.

Puffing and blowing, the Wizard of the West dropped his coat back around his knees, loosened his hat, and with the huge bandanna handkerchief they used in those times mopped his fevered brow.

"Just made it," he declared, adding, "We'll win the Cup now that we escaped that terrible omen."

And he was right.

Lord Nolan had been indeed well and truly tried for a Cup in which he had but 6.10, and had much up his sleeve, as he subsequently proved by winning the Leger at Randwick and weight-for-age plums.

Mr. Wolfe adopted as pen-name the name of Mr. Mayo's first Cup winner, Cardigan, when he wrote for The Referee in Sydney, and The Argus, and finally The Herald in Melbourne.

Between newspaper jobs he became chairman of stewards for the Queensland Turf Club in Brisbane, and controlled racing in a manner which gave the leading Northern Club such deep satisfaction that committeemen did their utmost to persuade him to stay when finally he wished to resign and return to journalism.

His evidence before a Royal Commission for a second Brisbane racecourse helped substantially to establish Doomben, which quickly became famous for the biggest sprint race prize in Australasia, even outstripping the notable events on the Sydney and Melbourne racecourses.

Mr. Wolfe, who retired from journalism a few years ago, is now living in retirement in Sydney and welcomes his many friends when they visit him at 50a Ocean Street, Woollahra for a chat about "the real good old times".

WORK COMMENCES ON NEW RANDWICK GRANDSTAND

A Club member heads the construction company which is building the new $3 million grandstand at Randwick Racecourse.

The member, Mr. R. C. (Dick) Baker, is the managing director of Mainline Constructions, the company which has the contract for the erection of the new stand.

The Baker family is well known in Club circles.

Dick has been a member for eight years and his father, Mr. C. A. Baker, joined Tattersall's in 1955.

The new stand will provide amenities for racegoers equal to any in the world.

It will be located between the member's stand and the present main public grandstand.

Sections of these stands have been demolished and Mainline expects to complete the new stands by December of next year.

The seating tiers will give excellent vision over the course and although some small sections of the existing stands will have views obstructed, the new stand is designed to be extended as part of a master plan for the whole racecourse, as further finance becomes available.

Architects, Peddle, Thorp and Walker studied overseas trends before designing the new stand which will be basically an in situ concrete structure with pre-cast concrete seats.

The cantilevered roof will be constructed of post-tensioned pre-cast concrete units.

The new section provides seating and amenities for members and the public.

The access to most important parts of the existing members' stand and grandstand and the new stand will be greatly improved by the installation of moving footways.

The space under the stand will be clear, except for columns, to allow the present width of access from lawn to bookmakers' ring.

The first floor will contain a central kitchen and the air conditioning plant for the stand.

The second floor, for members only, will have seating for 1,828 members.

A section of this will be directly in line with the winning post. Behind this seating, and in enclosed air conditioned space, are twenty tote windows, six stands for bookmakers and pay-out, cloak room and a stand-up bar.

Three rows of seating form a gallery on the third floor for committee and guests, seating sixty in the committee area, and 72 in the further area. Behind this open gallery are the committee rooms and a members' dining room seating 300 comfortably; most of these with an excellent view over the whole course.

Similarly the members' bar on this floor will have comfortable seating and an excellent view over the course. All except the gallery seating will be air conditioned.

The fourth floor, which is the second level of the grandstand seating, provides for at least 1,100 people, allowing a proportion of this section to be sub-divided into private boxes which can be leased for long or short term periods.

These boxes will have service by stewards from the snack bar and from a special liquor bar, and will seat three, five or seven people, as required.

Behind this seating, in an air conditioned space, will be twenty totalisator windows and stands for six bookmakers and pay-out, bar, a large snack bar and cloak room.

In air conditioned space on the fifth floor, with an excellent view over the course, there will be a restaurant seating at least 240 people with its own cocktail bar for about 40 people.

In another section of this floor will be an oyster bar and liquor bar.

Mullionless glazing will allow an uninterrupted view over the course from this level.

Both the fourth and fifth floors will be accessible by moving footway to those in the existing grandstand.

The existing judges' box will be demolished and the judges located in a room suspended from the roof of the new stand. Also, the Press commentators and photo-finish camera are to be located in adjoining rooms, as well as a battery of floodlights for the finishing line at twilight meetings.

Club Point Score - 1967-8

Alec McLelland and Bruce Cox took out the honours in the first Swimming Club Point Score of the 1967/68 season with scores of twenty-seven points each.

McLelland had a startling improvement of three seconds over last season's efforts whilst Cox pulled off five from his first swim of this season.

These two were well ahead of the rest who were headed on twenty-two points by Dan O'Connor, Doug Holman and Bill Butchart.

With one race to complete the November Point Score an interesting position has arisen as those two good mates Charles Coppa (20 points) and Bill Rowe (19) were fighting it out with Derek Jackson (17½) and the swimming club's two new committeemen, Jim Comans and Frank Falson level on 17 points next.

So popular is the racing in the Pool that the number of starters in each of the first seven races exceeded fifty in each, with an average of fifty-six. In the 24th October race the starters were a record of 63.

Best swims since the last magazine issue were: 19.5 by David Cohen, 20.1 by Bill Henneberry, 20.8 by M. Primrose, 20.8 and 21.5 by Bruce Cox, 21.3 by Bill Butchart, and 21.4 by Chris Warne and Alan Ball.

Incidentally, David Cohen in the Hon. Secretary of the N.S.W. Water Polo Association and from all accounts he is making a good fist of his job.

Our swimmers continue to improve and since the last magazine issue the following have been dropped in handicaps: Vanwhyte, Glass, Primrose, Morrissey, Hickey, Daly, Yewdall, Coppa, Stanford, Ball and Rowe (one each); Mitchell and Ogg (two each); McLelland and Cox (three each). We're going to have a lot of back markers soon.

Welcome is given to the following new members who have been well in the swim: G. London, Roger Clark, W. Tunbridge, Grant Lawrey, G. Andrews, John McGlinchey and Ken Turner.

Ken Turner won a heat in his first race with the Club and it is safe to say that John McGlinchey will drop in handicap very soon. In a recent race he combined so well with Dan O'Connor in a Brace Relay final that they cut 4.2 seconds off their handicap time to win easily.

It's a rare occasion when Charlie Robertson misses a race but he was absent recently when out of town but to make up for that we had Bill Orme back in action.

Bill and his wife have just returned from a month's overseas trip with the prime object representation as President of the local body at a Junior Commerce conference at Haiti. He had a really good trip and so did his companions Terry Forrest and Ian Cameron and their wives. Up to time of writing these two have not been sighted in the Pool.

Stuart Murray is a welcome regular in the races these days and is going well and so is John Dexter, Junior, who won a Brace Relay with Derek Jackson in his first race for a long time.

In Bill Kirwan's "Native Son" 1967/68 contest for most points scored during the season Charles Coppa is in front with 41 points, with Frank Falson (38½), Bill Rowe (35), Dan O'Connor (35), and Bruce Cox (34), next best.

One of the highlights of the Swimming Club's season, the Christmas Scramble, will take place on Thursday, 21st December, at 1.10 p.m. As usual there will be a Relay Handicap of four teams, each swimmer going two laps. The members of the team placed fourth will swim a Consolation Handicap over six times across the Pool. All competitors will receive a prize of Christmas Cheer. Members are urged to be on deck to wish their friends season's greetings and to participate in the fun, but please try to be early as the number of starters will necessitate a fairly lengthy programme.

On the previous Tuesday, 19th December, the race will be a 40 yards Brace Relay Handicap, each man to swim one lap of the pool, with heats and finals to be swum on the same day.

Our congratulations go to the Union of Old Swimmers on retaining the services as President of Tattersall's Club Chairman, Frank Carberry. Frank has occupied the position for many years and has worked hard to keep the Union in its present popular position.

Seasons Greetings from the Bowling Section

President (Dr. Fuz Porter) extends the Season's greetings to all Tattersall's members and especially to the members of the bowling section. With the annual carnival of the Turf Bowlers' Association being held in Canberra in March 1968 it looks like being a big year for the bowlers. The President is looking to members to give this fixture and our regular weekly Thursday game their utmost support so that the coming year will be one of our biggest and best.

The Christmas game will be held at Rose Bay on Thursday 14th December and promises to be a terrific day as a large number of the trophies have been generously donated by a number of anonymous members. Do not miss this opportunity of having an enjoyable afternoon and have a Christmas drink with your bowling friends. Would all members wishing to be present on this day please place their names on the board before the 14th December.

At Kensington on the 9th November Len Burke, P. Solomon, L. Sacker, established an all time record when they won 40 points to 6 for a total of 28 points. No doubt Len had the whip out that day. Congratulations, boys.

The final of the Handicap pairs was played at Kensington. Alex Gibson and Stan Clements played David Cohen and Gordon Lovett. This proved a very closely contested game. Both teams were 18 all on the 20th end and on the last end Cohen and Lovett were holding three shots with both skipper Cohen and Gibson having one bowl each to play. Alex Gibson put down his last bowl and succeeded in getting a rub off an outside bowl to run in the shot. Cohen desperately drove and scattered the head but was unlucky and Clement and Gibson finished with the shot and game. The score was 19 to 18. Congratulations Alex and Stan. Commiserations Gordon and David.

Another congratulation goes out to our past President Harold Hill, who partnered Albert Newton to win the Masters pairs at Double Bay 21 to 13. A great effort, Harold and Albert, and all at Tatts hope you go on to many more meritorious victories.

Trophy Winners

October 26 at Moore Park: D. Wilson, M. Barnett, K. Williams, 20 points.

November 2nd at Kensington: J. Neville, H. B. Jones, S. Peters, 23 points.

November 9th at Kensington: L. Sacker, P. Solomon, L. Burke, 28 points.

November 16th at Maroubra: Wash-out.

November 23rd at Kensington: T. Rennenson, H. B. Jones, W. Parsons, 25 points.

It is with great pleasure that we welcome a new member, Emmet McDermott, who is a member of Lindfield Bowling Club. Welcome Emmet and hope that you will be with us for many years and become one of our regular players.

The President (Dr. Fuz Porter) would like all members to make a note of the date of our first game in the New Year which will be at Waverley on Thursday, 11th January, 1968.

Happy bowling to all.

Looking for Somewhere to Spend the Summer Holidays?

May we suggest . . .

MATTERHORN MOUNTAIN INN

This luxurious Lodge is situated in Perisher Valley in the Kosciusko State Park and is owned by members of your club. The rooms are large and comfortable and have their own bathrooms. Family suites are available. We are proud of our table and you may choose between full board or dinner, bed and breakfast.

The days are long and clear and when the sun disappears behind the summit peaks you will find enjoyment in a cocktail hour spent around a log fire.

During Winter and Spring the melting snows have created a large lake at Jindabyne — ten minutes from the Lodge by a tarred road. You may hire sailing or fishing boats and a dozen trout streams are within easy reach.

We can arrange horse riding expeditions for you and our Lodge is excellently situated for a host of walks, ranging from a pleasant ramble to unforgettable hours spent on the roof of Australia.

There is something for every member of your family and we are confident you will enjoy this holiday with a difference.

OUR YOUNGER GENERATION TRIUMPHS IN 1967

It was a real treat to witness two of our younger members in Lee Bluett and David Scutts fight out the Final of our 1967 Snooker Handicap Tournament.

It is doubtful whether better play has ever graced the Final of this important Annual event. We have come to expect "Bull Pen Pressures" to create the butterflies of uncertainty in all finalists when shaping up under fire on these supreme occasions, but not so with these two finalists. They both played magnificently, outwardly calm and collected, and while perhaps their safety play could be improved, their potting was deadly. Particularly was this true of Bluett who thoroughly deserved his two frames to one victory over Scutts.

Congratulations to the winner on his fine victory, commiserations to the runner-up, and a big "well done" to both for providing a really first class final.

Representing, as they do, the very large proportion of our total club membership that is made up of our more youthful members, Bluett and Scutts, by virtue of their shining example, will doubtless influence many more of our younger "up and coming" cue-ists to enter our Tournaments in 1968 than we had the pleasure of including in the 1967 Series just concluded.

A MEMORABLE DAY FOR INTER-CLUB SNOOKER PLAYERS

Through the outstanding courtesy of Frank Hewitt of the Royal Automobile Club, the playing members of the six Sydney Clubs that meet in the Annual Inter-Club Snooker competition were invited to be Frank Hewitt's guests on a day out to attend the running of the 1967 Melbourne Cup at Flemington. And what a marvellous day it proved to be.

You'd have a hard time trying to find a more gracious and generous host than Frank Hewitt. All that remained for the guests to do was get themselves to and from Mascot, Frank Hewitt took care of the rest.

He provided a specially chartered Fokker Friendship to and from Melbourne; transport to and from Flemington; excellent reserved seats right over the Winning Post; and an excellent Dinner after the races. Dinner entertainment was highlighted by Peter McGrath's old time waltz with Mrs. Hewitt, and John Peoples doing a surprisingly good job in one of the newer and Red Hot numbers with Miss Hewitt.

Of course everybody aboard really enjoyed Denis Cooke's (RACA) Liberal hospitality all the way home. You see—he drew Red Handed in the Sweep on the way down.

HANDBALL—TATTERSALL'S CLUB ENTERTAINS CLOVELLY

On Monday, November 13th, it was the privilege of Tattersall's Handball Club to entertain a team of handball players from the Clovelly Club and it was a grand night indeed. A knock-out competition was arranged in two brackets. A winners' competition and a losers' competition, each game 21 up.

The following players participated:

TATTERSALL'S	CLOVELLY
Bruce Partridge	Wally Ellean
Robert Lipman	Peter Gleeson
Norman Rogers	Garry Stubbs
David Morrissey	Keith Matson
Arthur O'Connor	Ron Evans
Charles Robinson	David Murray
Malcolm Fuller	Geoff James
Ken Glass	Perce Galea
Bill Sellen
Syd Kay
Tom Abernethy
Frank Burns
Jack Grinham
Don Stait
Arthur McCamley (Non-Playing Captain for Tatts)

It was a handball treat. Both teams excelled themselves, with Clovelly just having the edge to provide three of the four finalists. The results were:

Winners' Competition

Norman Rogers (Tattersall's) v. Garry Stubbs (Clovelly).

This resulted in a win for Garry and it was a grand game. We all know "our" Norman and how he can hit. In Garry he met a young man who not only took all Norm could give but gave back just as good and with interest.

Congratulations to you, Garry, it was a grand exhibition.

Losers' Competition

Peter Gleeson (Clovelly) v. Geoff James (Clovelly).

This was the match of the night and resulted in a win for Peter. I have never enjoyed watching a game of handball as much as I enjoyed this one. Two young athletes just playing for the joy of playing. Each striving to beat the other. The ball flew back and forth at impossible speed. At one time or another during the match each of the players was left sprawled on the floor after endeavouring to retrieve an impossible shot—it was good to see. Although the scores indicated that Peter was the winner, there was in fact no real winner. Geoff was grand in defeat and these two young friends made a grand finish to our competitions.

After the games it was our pleasure to entertain our friends to some "light" refreshments on the second floor and this turned out to be every bit as good as the handball. The staff of Tattersall's Club did a mighty job. The drinks were cold and just right. The food was first class and enjoyed by all. The service was terrific and for this we pass on our thanks to our Chairman and his Secretary, Lyal Binns, and we ask Lyal to pass on our thanks to those who looked after us. Anyhow, when everyone was happy and mellow Arthur McCamley presented Pewter pots to the winners and a grand night was had by one and all. A special mention for Norman Rogers, who did all the work. Good boy,

In the meantime, our Club event for the Good Idea Trophy has been going on very well and is rapidly nearing the semi-final stages. The second round results were:

Ken Glass (12) defeated Fred Allsop (32) 41-39
Robert Lipman (2) .. David Morrissey (13) 41-26 and both have reached the semi-finals.

Other results:

Bill Hannan	defeated	Charlie Robinson
R. Fisher	"	Bill Orme
John Brice	"	Ken Humphrey
Bruce Partridge	"	Don Stait
Ralph Davies	"	Ken McCaffery
Stan Heaton	"	Charlie Coppa
Michael O'Dea	"	John Keating
David Morrissey	"	Brian Mortensen
Bruce Galea	"	Max Sernack

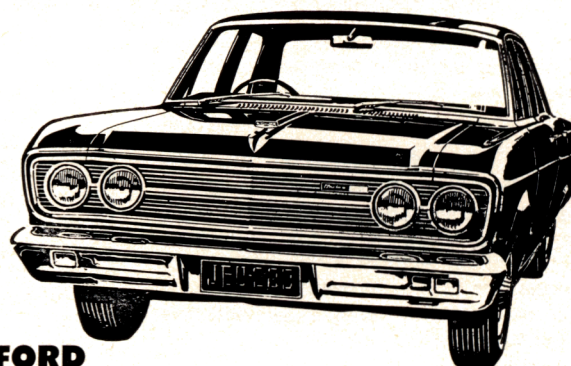

As a conclusion to these notes, I wish to take this opportunity of expressing, on behalf of the Handball Club, to our Chairman, Frank Carberry, our Treasurer, Barney Fay, and the members of the Committee and their families a very happy Christmas and a prosperous New Year. We also extend these greetings to all members of Tattersall's Club — no matter where they are; to our Secretary; and all the staff of our wonderful Club. May God bless you one and all and bring you every joy and happiness in the year to come.
